

Kings Head Cottage, Pickering ★★★★★ Gold

Sleeps 4

A 17th Century, Grade II listed cottage, which together with the Old Kings Head Cottage next door was originally a cruck-built long-house. Two pairs of the crucks still survive in the cottage. In recent years the cottage has been tastefully refurbished retaining the beams and the pair of crucks. The cottage has full central heating with two double bedrooms and a bathroom upstairs, along with a downstairs shower room. The rear of the cottage adjoins the attractive grounds of the parish church, set in the heart of the market town of Pickering.
